

Official Proclamation.

STATE OF VERMONT.
WASHINGTON COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE, /
March 15, 1833.

I, SHURAEL WHEELER, Clerk of Washington County Court, hereby certify that I have this day canvassed the votes of the Freemen of said County, on the second Tuesday of March instant, for County Commissioners, in pursuance of a law of this State, approved Nov. 23, 1832, entitled an "An act to prevent traffic in Intoxicating Liquors for the purpose of drinking," and that the result is as follows:

Whole number of votes cast 3354; of which

David Baldwin received 1674
Scattering 3

CALVIN BLADGETT received 1677 1677

I do therefore declare and make this my Proclamation, that the Hon. CALVIN BLADGETT, of Waterbury, having the greatest number of votes, is duly elected County Commissioner for the County of Washington for the year ensuing, by the votes of the Freemen of said County, as appears by said canvass, on record in this office.

SHURAEL WHEELER, Clerk.

The above result is certainly remarkable, and nobody will be surprised, under the circumstances, to see an intimation in the Repository, that there has been some smart figuring on the part of one of the returning officers. Of course we do not mean to say that there has actually been cheating; we only mean that the closeness of the vote, and an alleged controversy in the medical and official returns of the town of Woodbury, leave a chance for those to indulge suspicion who are inclined that way.—For our own part, we are surprised to find that the election of a Commissioner, who, do what he will, cannot really effect very much in the application of the law, should excite so much feeling. Whether many of us are disposed to sell, we take it that the law will still be enforced; and should any commissioner attempt to make the law odious or to disrupt it, an intelligent people will soon learn to discriminate between the law and its administrators. Judge Bladgett is in, and we have no right to suppose that he will not faithfully perform the duties of the office.

The following list of county commissioners are elected from the several counties heard from. In those counties where the names are in italics, the candidates were elected by the opponents of the law; those in roman letters in favor of the law:

Washington county, Caleb Bladgett.
Bennington " Leonard Sargent.
Windham " John Roberts.
Rutland " Silas W. Hodges.
Addison " Davis Rich.
Windham " Nehemiah Haskell.
Chittenden " David Godfrey.
Orleans " John F. Chamberlin.
Lamoille " H. H. Bougouin.
Orleans " Samuel Crammer.
Essex " Greenleaf Field.

François and Grand Isle counties have probably elected commissioners.

New Hampshire.

A bill of indictment has been found by the Grand Jury against the city of Bangor as a common seller of liquor, by its agent.

At a trial at Oxford, Me., the other night, a young lady, sitting with her brother, saw the man who had broken his promise to marry her, dancing with another, and shot him with a pistol.—Certainly, if young men were made afraid of such visitations of "wild justice," these would be less trifling with the feelings of young women.

Young Bowman got a fall in his saddle, and his partner was seized by the powder. When an accident as this were put into a novel, critics would say it was not little nor strong; but truth is stronger than fiction.

The St. Louis Intelligencer publishes a letter from an overland emigrant to California, which gives a few details of the difficulties experienced in the mountains over Carson valley. On arrival at the Second Summit, the writer, who thought he had lost all the tops of pine trees, and was almost dead with fatigue, found a camp of Indians, who had been hunting for deer, and were encamped near the summit, with a large quantity of dried venison, and a few horses ready to start again.
